

Web Designer / Manager Web Design Team

04/2008

General Info

This position reports to the Managing Director and works in close relationship with the Key Account Manager and the Technical Development Manager.

The contract offered is full time CDI.

Job Functions

- Design and production of web sites and web based applications
- Design and production of promotional material (web and print)
- Client presentations and follow up
- Project management
- Design team management
- Coordinate with technical and key client teams
- Use internal tools for project tracking and reporting

Required skills

- In depth knowledge the design process from design to production
- Design of UI for web applications
- Expert in the tools of the trade (Photoshop, Illustrator, Dreamweaver, Fireworks, Flash,...)
- Extensive experience and working knowledge of CSS, XHTML, javascript,... additional languages considered a plus
- Fluency in English + French or German (other languages considered a plus)

Education / Professional experience

- Minimum Bac +2.
- University Education is preferred
- Formal design education / training certificates
- Minimum 6 years design experience in a professional agency

Required characteristics

- Be meticulous and have lots of attention for detail
- Be well organized
- Practice the "less is more" credo in your design
- Have the desire to take initiative and solve problems
- Have the desire to make a positive difference in everything you get involved in
- Be committed to finishing things you start
- Be a team player
- Be a team leader
- Have the desire to go further

About Red Dog Communications S.A.

Red Dog Communications is a full service web agency with an international client portfolio, established in Luxembourg since 1996. We currently have 10 employees and work together with several teams of freelancers around the world.

For more info please visit www.red-dog.com.

Send your applications per email to CV@red-dog.com.